

COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE

FLAT RIVER

Keith Moon, of Bonne Terre, was a Flat River visitor Friday of last week. Mrs. N. Tucker and daughter, Miss Pauline, returned home the latter part of the week, after spending a few days in Fredericktown visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. Ed Griffin and Mrs. J. Green, of Flat River, spent Monday in Farmington, the guests of Mrs. J. H. Tetley.

E. Sebastian was a business visitor at Coffman the first part of the week. Misses Minnie and Leah Alper and Martin Wolfner and Earl Limbaugh were visitors in Farmington Sunday.

Marvin O'Sullivan and Keith Moon, of Bonne Terre, were Flat River visitors Sunday.

Misses Elsie Schlick and Bessie Mosler were guests of friends in Desloge Friday.

Miss Beatrice Boas, of Flat River, and Marvin O'Sullivan, of Bonne Terre visited friends in Farmington Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Jennings and children, Virginia and Harry, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wallace, of Flat River, Mrs. P. C. Hough and children of Fredericktown, spent Sunday afternoon near St. Francois river.

Mrs. J. Howlett, of Charleston, spent Monday here visiting relatives.

L. E. Pierson, of Detroit, Mich., came here Friday to join his wife, who had been here a few weeks visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. T. L. Haney. They expect to spend the summer near Iron Mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Parker and children, of Flat River, spent Sunday near Libertyville, visiting Mr. and Mrs. Leo Moran.

Mrs. P. C. Hough, of Fredericktown, came here Saturday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Schlick. She returned home Tuesday, taking with her her children, Virginia and Parkhurst, who had been visiting their grandparents for a few weeks.

Guy and Perry Haney, of near Avon, spent the week-end in Flat River visiting their sister, Mrs. Guy Labrot, and other relatives.

Misses Nellie Williams, Alice Marsh and Vida Tucker, Hubert McAnally, Brabson Cecil and Ralph Haney were Farmington visitors Saturday.

Leslie Evans spent the week-end in Farmington visiting his parents.

Misses Lucille Simpson and Helen Moran, of Bonne Terre, were Flat River visitors Saturday.

Mrs. T. L. Haney and daughters, Ruby and Ida, are spending this week near Libertyville, visiting her mother, Mrs. J. P. Simpson.

Dr. and Mrs. G. B. Williams and Misses Dorothy and Alice Marsh, Mariana Cecil, Vida Tucker, Allean Nalle, Nellie Williams, Elizabeth White and Minnie Goldstein enjoyed a good splash in Big River Tuesday afternoon. They took lunch with them and all reported a good time.

Dr. Ed Griffin, A. Boyencheck and son spent Friday afternoon at St. Francois river fishing.

Farrell Burns was operated on for appendicitis at the Bonne Terre hospital Saturday. His friends will be glad to know that he is improving rapidly.

Eddie Boyencheck left Sunday morning for St. Louis, where he will spend the summer. He will return to Flat River in the fall and attend school.

Mrs. C. Bess and daughter returned home Sunday after spending three or four weeks near Marble Hill, visiting her father, Mr. Anderson.

Dr. Haney and W. Karach were business visitors in Bonne Terre Wednesday.

The National office team defeated the R. A. R. team in a game of baseball Tuesday afternoon, the score being 11 to 1. The R. A. R. team will play their next game Friday afternoon with Elvins.

Brabson Cecil left the middle of the week for Lake Geneva Y. M. C. A.

training school, to spend the summer. While there he will visit C. C. Watson, who was formerly physical director of the local Y. M. C. A.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Bouchard, of Flat River, visited relatives in Desloge Sunday.

The members of the Methodist League spent an evening the latter part of last week at St. Francois river, where they enjoyed a good swim.

Clyde Phillips and Frank Simpson, who are employed in the Doe Run Lead Co. office, spent Sunday in Farmington visiting their parents.

BISMARCK

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Herron, Mrs. Wm. Gann and J. F. Strickland were visitors near Alum Cave Wednesday afternoon.

Misses Bess Hodkins and Sarah Goodykootz, of Caledonia, were guests of the latter's sister, Mrs. John Grisham, the middle of the week.

Miss Ruth Holman, of Farmington, visited friends and relatives here Wednesday.

Wm. Bogue, of Caledonia, umpired the baseball game between the Boston Bloomers and Bismarck Wednesday afternoon.

A baby girl was born to the wife of John Holt Tuesday night.

Edgar Rowland visited friends and relatives in DeSoto the fore part of the week.

Walter Boatright of Iron Mountain was here Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Boatright and Mr. and Mrs. James Cox, of Iron Mountain, attended the ball game here Wednesday afternoon.

Frances Smith, of Irondale, was a visitor here Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Maxwell, of Belgrade, was a visitor here Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Carr, of Caledonia, were visitors here Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Robinson, of Irondale, was a guest of Mrs. Ida Kettinger on Thursday.

Chas. Kettinger is working as messenger boy at the Mo. P. depot in place of Roy Eldson, who is substituting for Earl Wright as clerk. Mr. Wright has been ailing for some time and went to St. Louis Thursday for medical treatment.

Paul Hunter was a Caledonia visitor Sunday.

Edgar Hill and Jess Wood were Flat River visitors Wednesday.

Chas. Kettinger was a Desloge visitor Monday.

The Western Union repair gang is at present repairing their lines near this city.

John Sisk, Leo Polk, Glenn Barger and Kennett Davidson attended a base ball game in DeSoto Tuesday.

Oran Kirkendall was in Farmington Tuesday and Wednesday, attending Court.

Tom Matkin and Oran Kirkendall were in Ironton Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wise, of Elvins, visited her parents here Monday.

Tolman Simms was a St. Louis visitor the week-end.

Mrs. J. F. Schroeder and children went to Valmeyer, Ill., Saturday for a few days' visit with friends and relatives.

Henry Mester and Wm. Devine were Farmington visitors Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Richardson and Mr. and Mrs. Nipper, all of Flat River, were guests here Sunday at the Wood home.

The Sunday school class of Mrs. Wm. England went on an outing to Tullock ford Thursday. Well filled baskets were taken along. Various games and swimming provided amusements, and all had a good time. The young folks were chaperoned by Mrs. Wm. England and Miss Lulu Belchamber.

The Sunday school classes of Miss Reta Tullock and Mrs. J. O. Lucas were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hudson Thursday afternoon.

noon. Various games provided amusements and at the close refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

Mrs. Lucy Sloan received the sad news Friday afternoon that her son, Jack, had been shot in Texas, from which injury he died. We were unable to learn the particulars.

Fred Miller, of Bonne Terre, was a business visitor near here Tuesday.

Glynn Smith, of Bellevue, was a visitor with friends here Wednesday.

Herbert Radlo, of Farmington, was a visitor here Wednesday afternoon.

Raymond Province, of Irondale, was here Wednesday.

Miss Thelma Crabtree, of Elvins, was a visitor at the home of L. Penberthy the week-end.

Miss Bessie Woodrow departed Sunday for St. Louis, where she will visit relatives and friends for an extended time.

Charley Harris, of Elvins, was a visitor in our town Wednesday afternoon.

D. M. Ringer and family spent Sunday afternoon in Leadwood visiting relatives and friends.

Miss Mayora Sloan visited her mother, Mrs. Lucy Sloan, and family the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. N. R. White, of Caledonia, visited friends here Wednesday.

Jesse Wood and family, of Elvins, were guests of relatives and friends here Wednesday.

Six negroes were arrested here at the pump house last Wednesday afternoon by Marshal Huff and J. F. Strickland. Upon searching them, revolvers were found on two of them.

The ones on whom the guns were found were placed in the "cooler" for a while and the others ordered to leave town in double quick time.

Monte Edmonds, of this city, and Miss Olinda Floor, of St. Louis, were united in marriage at that place Saturday afternoon. The groom is employed here. They will make their home in this city. All join in wishing them a happy married life.

Misses Georgia and Myrtle Matkin were St. Louis visitors the fore part of the week.

Misses Ona and Viola Tally were Potosi visitors the fore part of the week.

John Gale, of Fredericktown, was a visitor at the home of his brother, Dr. F. W. Gale, and family the week-end.

John Reagan made a business trip to Ironton Wednesday.

J. C. Kness, of St. Louis, was home Sunday.

Mrs. J. P. London, of Loughboro, came here Sunday for a few days' visit at the home of her children.

Cy Sherrill and John London, of Flat River visitors here Sunday.

Miss Myrtle Blanton returned home Sunday from an extended visit with friends at Brunot.

Mr. Ward, of Irondale, was here Sunday.

Jeff Hughes and family, of Flat River, were guests of friends and relatives here Sunday.

Theo. Van Herck, of Iron Mountain, was a Sunday visitor here.

Jay Brown, of Bonne Terre, was visiting here Sunday.

Mrs. K. B. Lower departed Sunday for Merriam, Miss., where she will visit with relatives and friends for some time.

P. C. Friend, Marshal Huff, John Sisk, Omar Matkin and Wm. Strickland attended a base ball game at Ironton Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Virgie Griffey, of St. Louis, was a visitor at the home of Mrs. Griffey the past week.

The Boston Bloomers, a baseball team composed of five women and four men, made their appearance on the local diamond last Wednesday and were given a severe trouncing to the tune of 6 to 1. Barnes for Bismarck and Sullivan for the Bloomers pitched good ball. The Bismarck team scored two runs in the first inning, on a single by Russ. A home run by Bennett combined with errors by the Bloomer team. It was three up and three down for both sides in the second inning. The Bloomers were blanked in their half of the third, while Bismarck scored one run in their half. From then on to the seventh both sides failed to score. The Bloomers got their first hit in the seventh, a short single to right field. Bismarck scored three in their part of the seventh. The Bloomers were given a run in the eighth on errors by the home team, who were just toying with the Bloomer team. Thus the score remained at the close as both sides were blanked in the following innings.

L. M. Chapman, who is now conducting a barber shop in Leadwood, was in town Wednesday afternoon greeting friends.

Robert Woodrow was an Irondale visitor the fore part of the week.

Dave Burch, of Elvins, spent the latter part of the week at the home of his uncle, Sam Burch, near here.

Mr. Sutterfield, of Monterey, was a guest of Frank Tucker the latter part of the week.

John Beard, of St. Louis, spent from Saturday to Wednesday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Beard. John is another one of Bismarck's fine young men who is making good. He is holding a responsible position with the Union Electric in St. Louis.

Mr. Moore, of DeSoto, spent the week-end with home folks.

Mrs. Fentmacher and children went to St. Louis Saturday for an extended visit with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Maxwell, of Belgrade, were visitors here Saturday.

Dr. E. McGinnis was a Farmington visitor Saturday.

Mr. Laird, of Elvins, was a visitor here Sunday.

E. A. Beard was in Farmington on business Friday.

Mrs. Sam Burch spent Saturday in Elvins.

Miss Hattie Devine, who taught in the Madison, Ill., schools the past term, came home Saturday night for a few days visit with friends and relatives.

Ruby French, of Irondale, was here Saturday.

Mr. Devine, of Madison, came here Saturday night for a few days visit with home folks.

Mrs. Cecil Distell, who is attending college at Arcadia, was home over Sunday.

Mrs. Al Trauernicht and son, Charles, were Middlebrook visitors Sunday.

Mrs. Fred Cash and children, of Goff Springs, spent Monday at the home of L. H. Cash.

W. P. Spradling transacted business in Bonne Terre one day last week.

Among those attending the ball game at Valle Mines Sunday evening were: Misses Eva Jones and Kate Hodel of Melzo, Etta Lawson and Myrtle Pettis, Messrs. Amos Holdman of Melzo, Alvie Holdman of Prospect, Ural Hammock and Orville Lock of Silver Springs.

Mrs. Al Trauernicht and son, Charles, were Middlebrook visitors Sunday.

Andy Snyder made a trip to Bonne Terre last week.

Miss Myrtle Pettas was a guest of Miss Etta Lawson Sunday evening.

John Forshee, of near Coonville, transacted business in Bonne Terre one evening last week.

Misses Edna and Elsie Rawson were guests of Misses Anna and Minnie Meyer Sunday.

Lydie Williams motored out to Bonne Terre Saturday.

A party was given at the home of Adelbert Pratte in Bonne Terre last Friday night. A good time was reported by all. Those present were: Harvey, Floyd and Herman Lawson, Ferman Moon, Cecil Demiere, Otto and Virgil Cash of Big River.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Jones and little son of Melzo motored to Desloge Sunday and spent the day with relatives.

Harvey Lawson was a guest of Ferman Moon Sunday evening.

Wm. Holdman transacted business in Bonne Terre Saturday.

Mrs. Ida Jones and children were visitors at the home of Wm. A. Moon the latter part of last week.

Mr. Graham and family spent Sunday at the home of Wm. Holdman.

Leathel Rawson, Delbert Pettis, Steve Cole and Ferman and Elsie Moon were visitors at the home of Lewis Lawson Sunday morning.

Bryan Jones, of Melzo, was a Blackwell visitor Sunday.

Miss Nellie Moon was guest of her sister, Mrs. Annie Cash, Monday.

L. H. Cash was a business visitor in Bonne Terre Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Moon spent Sunday evening at the home of Jacob Matthey, of near Melzo.

Clarence Blockwell, of Moontown, spent Sunday at the home of John Murphy, of near Big River.

Mrs. John Forshee, of near Coonville, was shopping in Bonne Terre one day the latter part of last week.

Quite a few from Melzo attended prayer meeting at the T. M. B. church Sunday night.

Paul and Lee Pratte, of Bonne Terre, spent Sunday in the country.

J. Matthey, of near Melzo, was a visitor at the home of Willis Moon Monday morning.

Henry Lawson spent the latter part of last week in St. Louis.

The school board met on last Saturday night and employed Mrs. Kennet Burns as teacher of the primary grades, with Miss Rosa Moon as principal.

Messrs. Bradshaw and Allen, of Farmington attended Masonic Lodge here last Saturday afternoon.

Elder R. L. Allen preached two very interesting sermons at the Christian church here last Sunday morning and evening. There was one addition to the church Sunday evening.

The school board met on last Saturday night and employed Mrs. Kennet Burns as teacher of the primary grades, with Miss Rosa Moon as principal.

Messrs. Bradshaw and Allen, of Farmington attended Masonic Lodge here last Saturday afternoon.

Elder R. L. Allen preached two very interesting sermons at the Christian church here last Sunday morning and evening. There was one addition to the church Sunday evening.

The school board met on last Saturday night and employed Mrs. Kennet Burns as teacher of the primary grades, with Miss Rosa Moon as principal.

Messrs. Bradshaw and Allen, of Farmington attended Masonic Lodge here last Saturday afternoon.

Elder R. L. Allen preached two very interesting sermons at the Christian church here last Sunday morning and evening. There was one addition to the church Sunday evening.

The school board met on last Saturday night and employed Mrs. Kennet Burns as teacher of the primary grades, with Miss Rosa Moon as principal.

Messrs. Bradshaw and Allen, of Farmington attended Masonic Lodge here last Saturday afternoon.

Elder R. L. Allen preached two very interesting sermons at the Christian church here last Sunday morning and evening. There was one addition to the church Sunday evening.

The school board met on last Saturday night and employed Mrs. Kennet Burns as teacher of the primary grades, with Miss Rosa Moon as principal.

Messrs. Bradshaw and Allen, of Farmington attended Masonic Lodge here last Saturday afternoon.

Elder R. L. Allen preached two very interesting sermons at the Christian church here last Sunday morning and evening. There was one addition to the church Sunday evening.

The school board met on last Saturday night and employed Mrs. Kennet Burns as teacher of the primary grades, with Miss Rosa Moon as principal.

Messrs. Bradshaw and Allen, of Farmington attended Masonic Lodge here last Saturday afternoon.

Elder R. L. Allen preached two very interesting sermons at the Christian church here last Sunday morning and evening. There was one addition to the church Sunday evening.

Miss Myrtle Pettas was a guest of Miss Etta Lawson Sunday evening.

John Forshee, of near Coonville, transacted business in Bonne Terre one evening last week.

Misses Edna and Elsie Rawson were guests of Misses Anna and Minnie Meyer Sunday.

Lydie Williams motored out to Bonne Terre Saturday.

A party was given at the home of Adelbert Pratte in Bonne Terre last Friday night. A good time was reported by all. Those present were: Harvey, Floyd and Herman Lawson, Ferman Moon, Cecil Demiere, Otto and Virgil Cash of Big River.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Jones and little son of Melzo motored to Desloge Sunday and spent the day with relatives.

Harvey Lawson was a guest of Ferman Moon Sunday evening.

Wm. Holdman transacted business in Bonne Terre Saturday.

Mrs. Ida Jones and children were visitors at the home of Wm. A. Moon the latter part of last week.

Mr. Graham and family spent Sunday at the home of Wm. Holdman.

Leathel Rawson, Delbert Pettis, Steve Cole and Ferman and Elsie Moon were visitors at the home of Lewis Lawson Sunday morning.

Bryan Jones, of Melzo, was a Blackwell visitor Sunday.

Miss Nellie Moon was guest of her sister, Mrs. Annie Cash, Monday.

L. H. Cash was a business visitor in Bonne Terre Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Moon spent Sunday evening at the home of Jacob Matthey, of near Melzo.

Clarence Blockwell, of Moontown, spent Sunday at the home of John Murphy, of near Big River.

Mrs. John Forshee, of near Coonville, was shopping in Bonne Terre one day the latter part of last week.

Quite a few from Melzo attended prayer meeting at the T. M. B. church Sunday night.

Paul and Lee Pratte, of Bonne Terre, spent Sunday in the country.

J. Matthey, of near Melzo, was a visitor at the home of Willis Moon Monday morning.

Henry Lawson spent the latter part of last week in St. Louis.

The school board met on last Saturday night and employed Mrs. Kennet Burns as teacher of the primary grades, with Miss Rosa Moon as principal.

Messrs. Bradshaw and Allen, of Farmington attended Masonic Lodge here last Saturday afternoon.

Elder R. L. Allen preached two very interesting sermons at the Christian church here last Sunday morning and evening. There was one addition to the church Sunday evening.

The school board met on last Saturday night and employed Mrs. Kennet Burns as teacher of the primary grades, with Miss Rosa Moon as principal.

Messrs. Bradshaw and Allen, of Farmington attended Masonic Lodge here last Saturday afternoon.

Elder R. L. Allen preached two very interesting sermons at the Christian church here last Sunday morning and evening. There was one addition to the church Sunday evening.

The school board met on last Saturday night and employed Mrs. Kennet Burns as teacher of the primary grades, with Miss Rosa Moon as principal.

Messrs. Bradshaw and Allen, of Farmington attended Masonic Lodge here last Saturday afternoon.

Elder R. L. Allen preached two very interesting sermons at the Christian church here last Sunday morning and evening. There was one addition to the church Sunday evening.

The school board met on last Saturday night and employed Mrs. Kennet Burns as teacher of the primary grades, with Miss Rosa Moon as principal.

Messrs. Bradshaw and Allen, of Farmington attended Masonic Lodge here last Saturday afternoon.

Elder R. L. Allen preached two very interesting sermons at the Christian church here last Sunday morning and evening. There was one addition to the church Sunday evening.

The school board met on last Saturday night and employed Mrs. Kennet Burns as teacher of the primary grades, with Miss Rosa Moon as principal.

Messrs. Bradshaw and Allen, of Farmington attended Masonic Lodge here last Saturday afternoon.

Elder R. L. Allen preached two very interesting sermons at the Christian church here last Sunday morning and evening. There was one addition to the church Sunday evening.

The school board met on last Saturday night and employed Mrs. Kennet Burns as teacher of the primary grades, with Miss Rosa Moon as principal.

Messrs. Bradshaw and Allen, of Farmington attended Masonic Lodge here last Saturday afternoon.

Elder R. L. Allen preached two very interesting sermons at the Christian church here last Sunday morning and evening. There was one addition to the church Sunday evening.

The school board met on last Saturday night and employed Mrs. Kennet Burns as teacher of the primary grades, with Miss Rosa Moon as principal.

Messrs. Bradshaw and Allen, of Farmington attended Masonic Lodge here last Saturday afternoon.

Elder R. L. Allen preached two very interesting sermons at the Christian church here last Sunday morning and evening. There was one addition to the church Sunday evening.

The school board met on last Saturday night and employed Mrs. Kennet Burns as teacher of the primary grades, with Miss Rosa Moon as principal.

Messrs. Bradshaw and Allen, of Farmington attended Masonic Lodge here last Saturday afternoon.

Elder R. L. Allen preached two very interesting sermons at the Christian church here last Sunday morning and evening. There was one addition to the church Sunday evening.

The school board met on last Saturday night and employed Mrs. Kennet Burns as teacher of the primary grades, with Miss Rosa Moon as principal.

Marvin Mitchell was a business visitor at Fredericktown last Saturday.

Fred Underwood, of Mine La Motte, was a business visitor here last Thursday.

Dr. Barber, of Fredericktown, passed through here Wednesday enroute to Womack.

Emma Ferguson and brother motored